

2011 SUMMER EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Cross Cultural Team Facilitator
- 2 Positions Available

Overview: The BC Mission Boat Society is seeking two university students to join us for 14 weeks this summer as Cross Cultural Team Facilitators. This experience will provide opportunities to serve and lead in mission work, work with people of all ages, travel the remote coastal areas of British Columbia, work with First Nations communities, and have amazing opportunities to learn and refine person skills as well. A large chunk of time will be spent in the beginning month on office task and preparations of materials and supplies to carry out the summer ministry season.

As we are transitioning this year to an all land-based trip model, the exact job and tasks leading up to the mission trips will be new and different as we explore this together.

When: May 18 - August 24, 2010 (start and finish dates are open to negotiation.)

Wage: $10.00 /hour @ 40 hours/week, travel costs to remote communities with teams is included. We will seek to find housing for you.

Commitment: We are asking for a two consecutive summer commitment. If this is an issue and please contact us for further discussion and possibilities.

Requirements:

- Must be a Christian and demonstrate a Christian lifestyle
- Must be a full-time student returning to full-time studies in the 2011/2012 Academic Year.
- Ability to lead music ministry and preferably play guitar

Applying Deadline: Sunday, March 13 for resume and references

Please send all info by email or snail mail to the address below.